Time to Catch Your Breath?

One of the items at the Hilltop Kiwanis Newspaper Auction of 2010 was a back stage "behind the scenes" visit with Leo Welsh, official singer of the Columbus Blue Jackets hockey team.

The high bidder was Ret. Lt. Col. Dick Hoffman and he was excited to be in that position. Dick and his lovely wife Linda were treated to an evening of excitement and then they were escorted to the seats directly behind the visiting team as shown in the pictures below. They could have even acted as spies as they had a clear view of the opposing team's playbook!

Bruce and Marlene Bester were the stars of the show as they brought in the New Year at Kiwanis' visit to Vocal Jam. They were in the Jitterbug Contest and left with a trophy!

Vocal Jam member hand delivers a trophy to Bruce. It's nice to see Kiwanians just having fun!

A K-Kids Serenade

A pleasant December surprise came just in time for Christmas when three of our K-Kids from West Broad Elementary School sang Christmas carols accompanied by Tom Stewart on piano, Rev. Koster as songleader, and featuring Harold Hambrock as gaffer. Pictured are Michael Hudson, Mikayla Hudson, and Claire Eshenbaugh.

Pictured below are the K-Kids in chorus at Columbus West Park for a Christmas visit accompanied by Sunya Milner and Pam Seeley.

ELIMINATE Project

President's Corner

Now that we've all caught our breath from the recent holiday rush, it's time to start organizing your committees and discussing which projects you will be working on during this calendar year.

A crucial part of the operation of this club comes from the sale of our newspaper which takes place in December. Although a great job was done on the paper last year, we should not forget the effort put into the paper and the necessity for an early start.

If you would be willing to step up to the plate to work on advertisements for this year's paper or to act as coordinator to make sure the timelines are met and that the pieces fall into the puzzle correctly, please contact me directly as soon as possible.

Speaking of the newspaper advertisements, the free online ads offered this year are currently being completed and should be live no later than Feb. 1st.

Thoughts and Prayers

. Please keep all of our Kiwanis family in prayer that we may better serve our community.

Joe Norris and Paul Pennell had family members pass during the holidays.

Pres. Elect Judy Andrews is home recovering from a recent foot surgery.
